

Romantic Italy

Evoking romance from all corners, the Province of Tuscany is justifiably the most popular choice for weddings in Italy.

It has a unique combination of mouth-watering food, wine, breathtaking landscapes and stunning venues.

There is simply no finer example of a Renaissance Tuscan villa than that of Vignamaggio, nestled in the classic Chianti countryside. The property has an abundance of history, being the birthplace of the Mona Lisa and a film set quality that led it to be featured in the Kenneth Branagh film 'Much Ado about Nothing'. Its immaculate gardens, two pools, full spa facilities and award winning winery provide a truly unique arena for your perfect wedding day.

Is there a finer venue in Italy? Probably not! Could you have a better wedding anywhere else? Definitely not!

Weddings at Vignamaggio are available for up to 70 guests by contacting Love and Lord.
